Her parents suddenly went to Brazil to work, and in order to prepare for the entrance exam, Sakura went to live in her aunt's house.

However, her aunt also went for a business trip, so now there was only Sakura at her aunt's house.

Then, the Usakura sisters living in the neighborhood came to live with her.

And so a life with the big sister sister Usakura, a high school girl who went to my house every day, the beautiful little sister Fubuki who is in the same school as Sakura's, and also the President of the Student Council, and her aunt's life begins.

Isami Takane

Hello, I'm Isami Takane.
This time I'll draw a school-life manga.
It's a little different from a school-life
love comedy.
Even... Can it be called a school-life
manga full of subject?
It probably doesn't like that.
Anyway, when you feel like you'd like to be in a different world, please read this manga and go to a different world!
See you soon.
